

Tokio

Nintendo Tokyo store

The Nintendo Tokyo store is a shop where you can buy fan articles from Nintendo which are mostly not available anywhere else, but there is usually a long line where you have to wait for 2 to 3 hours.

Akihabara

Akihabara is a busy street where you can buy merchandise from video games or Animes, there are also a lot of game halls with classics like Street fighter.

Sensoji Temple

The Sensoji is arguably the most famous and most photographed Buddhist temple in Tokyo. It is the oldest Buddhist temple in the capital and is by a large number of tourists every year.

Ueno Park

The Ueno-park is the first in all of Japan and was established in 1873. The park is so big that you can easily spend a whole day here. If you've brought so much time with you.

Tokyo Tower

The Tokyo tower is a copy of the original Eifel tower and is 8 meters higher than the original. It was built in 1957.

Tokyo Rainbow bridge

The Tokyo Rainbow bridge is a bridge over the Port of Tokyo and was built in 1993 and is considered one of the most beautiful bridges.

