

My

travel

blog

I was in the Netherlands with my family.

When

(As) we were there on summer vacation it was nice to walk around there because the weather was nice.

Keukenhof (Kitchen garden)

The Keukenhof is a Dutch garden in the northern municipality of Lisse in the province of South Holland, ^{which} attracts tourists especially when the tulips are in bloom.

It is ~~are~~ really beautiful sight.

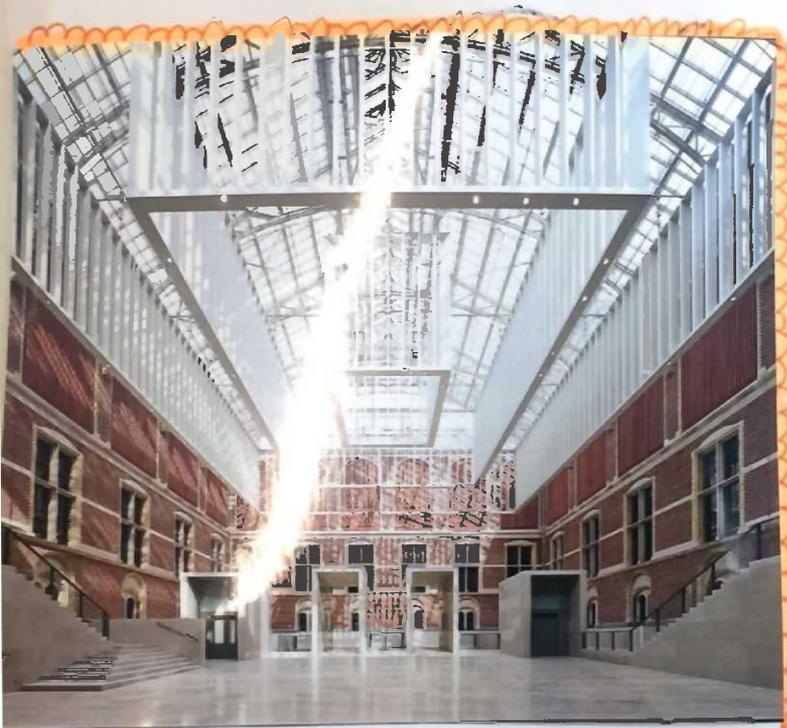

Vondelpark

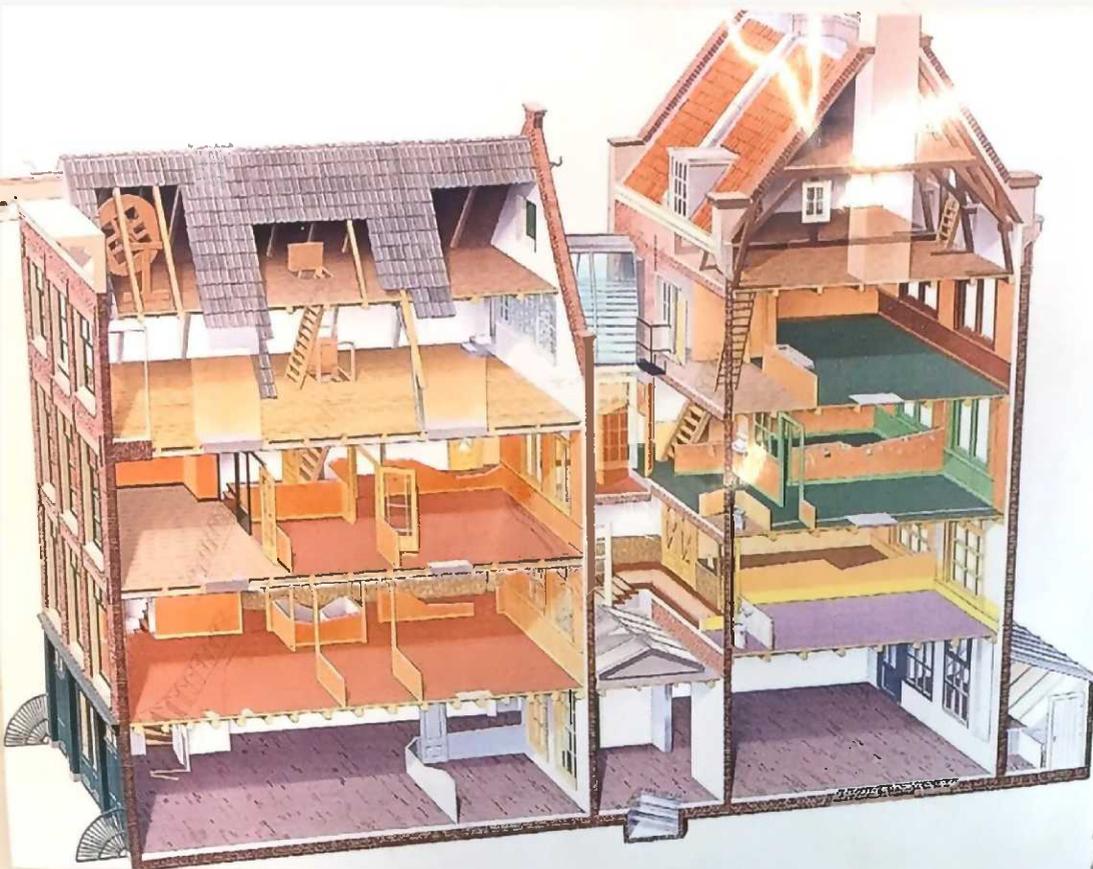

The Vondelpark is the most famous and second largest park in the Dutch capital, Amsterdam, and is named after the Dutch playwright Joost van den Vondel, whose monument stands in the park. The park, ^{which} ~~which~~ also has an open-air stage, a playground, a number of cafes and restaurants and a tea house, is frequented by around 10 millions visitors every year.

Rijksmuseum

The Rijksmuseum is a Dutch national museum on Museumplein in the Oud-Zuid district of Amsterdam in the Amsterdam-Zuid district. The museum is dedicated to the arts, crafts and history.

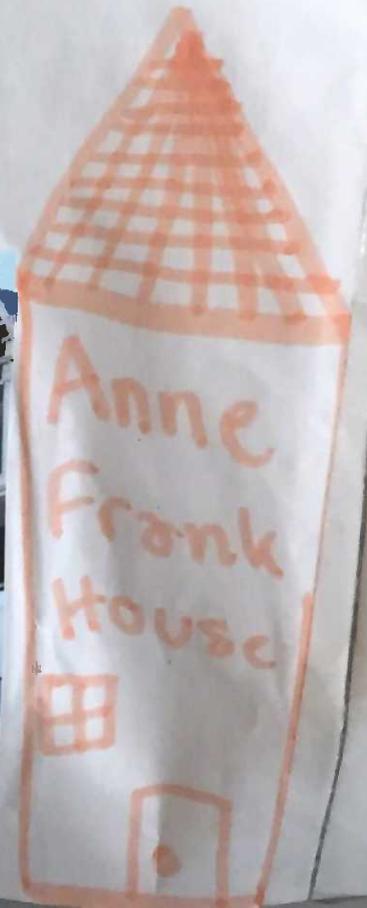

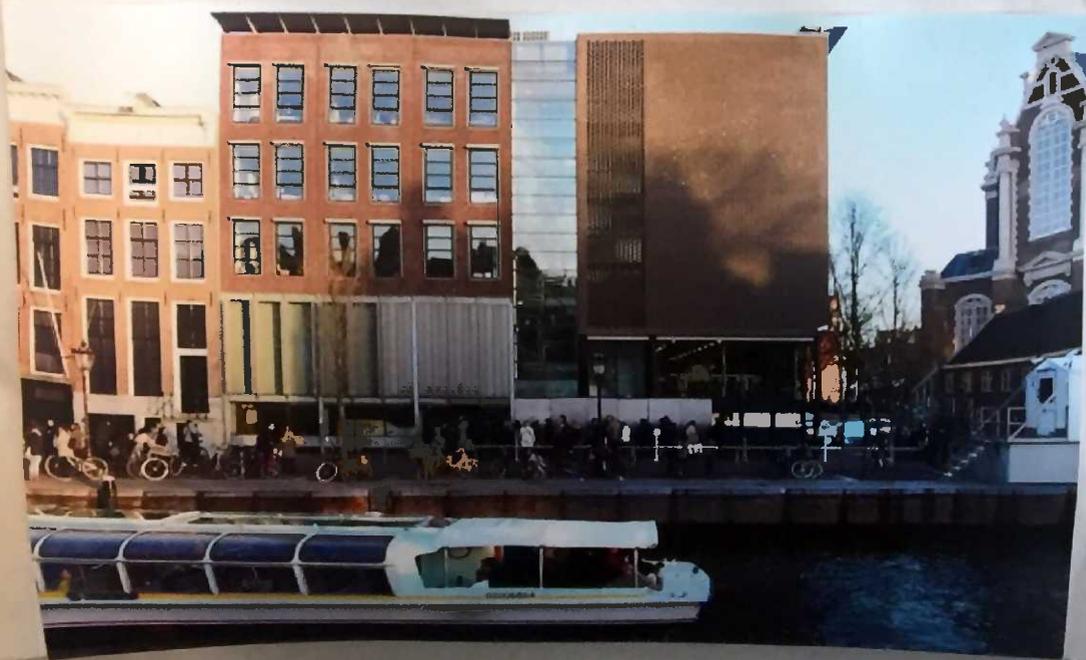

Ronald Leopold

Director des
Anne Frank
Häuses

Anne Frank was born on June 12th 1929 in Frankfurt am Main. Things are not looking good in Germany. Many people are unemployed and poor. During this time, Adolf Hitler gained more and more fans with his ^{party NSDAP} file. Because of anti-Semitism and the poor economic situation, Otto and Edith Frank, Anne's parents, decide to move to Amsterdam.

Unfortunately, I wasn't there, but I was very interested in the story so I asked for some information

The Dam is the central square of the city of Amsterdam and the most famous city square in the Netherlands. It is located in the center of the medieval city center and is the location of numerous buildings of national importance. Since I've only walked along there a few times, I can't comment on ^{it} my opinion.

Van gogh museum

The van gogh museum is an art museum.

It houses the largest collection of works by the Dutch painter Vincent van Gogh.
